

| | Postdoctoral Fellowship | Junior Research Fellowship | Senior Research Fellowship | Senior Teaching Fellowship |
|--|--|---|--|--|
| Focus | Long-term stipend for junior scholars to facilitate research in the study of culture | Short-term fellowship for junior scholars to facilitate research in the study of culture | Short-term fellowship for senior scholars to facilitate research in the study of culture | Short-term teaching fellowship for senior scholars to broaden the range of courses on offer in some defined, highly relevant fields of social sciences and the humanities along with excellent research conditions |
| Duration | 2 years | 2-4 months | 1-4 months | 4-5 months |
| Candidate's profile | Excellent PhD and preferably first experiences in further research and teaching, preferably with an international profile | Excellent PhD and first experiences in further research and teaching, preferably with an international profile | Excellent PhD and a proven record of excellent research and teaching, along with a distinctive international profile | Excellent PhD and a proven record of excellent teaching and research, preferably with an international profile |
| Candidate's subjects | Not restricted, i.e. one of the GCSC's academic subjects or other fields engaged in the study of culture | Not restricted, i.e. one of the GCSC's academic subjects or other fields engaged in the study of culture | Not restricted, i.e. one of the GCSC's academic subjects or other fields engaged in the study of culture | Restricted to: Social sciences, political sciences, sociology, cultural anthropology/ethnology, cultural studies, communication studies/media studies, art history, philosophy |
| Candidate's project at the GCSC | Research project that fits into the GCSC's research areas and can be completed in 2 years | Research project that fits into the GCSC's research areas and can be pushed on during the stay at the GCSC, preferably with publication of an article etc. | Research project that fits into the GCSC's research areas and can be pushed on during the stay at the GCSC, preferably with publication of an article etc. | A workshop/seminar series that contributes to the GCSC's research areas, relates to at least one of the subjects listed above. The candidate's own ongoing research project can also be pursued at the GCSC. |
| Candidate's further contribution to the GCSC | Postdoctoral Fellows are full members of the GCSC. They have the opportunity to offer their own workshops, organize conferences and can take part in all of the GCSC's workshops and master classes. Active participation in at least | Fellows are asked to contribute to the development of the GCSC's research profile and to the mentoring programme for PhD students by presenting their current research at least once in a public lecture, and by holding at least one workshop related to their current research. Active participation in at least | Fellows are asked to contribute to the development of the GCSC's research profile and to the mentoring programme for PhD students by presenting their current research at least once in a public lecture, and by holding a master class related to their current research. Active participation in at least | Fellows are expected to contribute to the development of the GCSC's study programme by presenting their current research at least once in a public lecture, and by offering a series of workshops and seminars related to their fields of research. They should furthermore facilitate the GCSC mentoring programme by offering regular consultation hours for PhD students. Active participation in at least |

| | | | | |
|----------------------|---|--|--|---|
| | one, preferably two of the research areas is expected. Furthermore, Postdoctoral Fellows are a vital part of the GCSC's mentoring system and should play an active part in mentoring doctoral candidates. A monthly stipend of 1,500€. The GCSC will provide office space including a PC with internet access and access to the JLU-library. The GCSC does not contribute to retirement or health benefits. | one, preferably two of the research areas is also expected. Networking with excellent doctoral students and colleagues, and establishment of long-term research co-operations. A monthly stipend of € 1,500,-, plus one-time travel costs to and from Giessen, as well as free accommodation in Giessen The GCSC will provide office space including a PC with internet access, access to the JLU-library and the support of a student assistant (20h/month) The GCSC does not contribute to retirement or health benefits. | one, preferably two of the research areas is also expected. Networking with excellent doctoral students and colleagues, and establishment of long-term research co-operations. A monthly stipend of € 2,350,-, plus one-time travel costs to and from Giessen, as well as free accommodation in Giessen The GCSC will provide office space including a PC with internet access, access to the JLU-library and the support of a student assistant (20h/month) The GCSC does not contribute to retirement or health benefits. | one, preferably two of the research areas is also expected. Networking with excellent doctoral students and colleagues, and establishment of long-term research co-operations. A monthly stipend of € 2,350,-, plus an allowance for travel and/or accommodation costs of € 400,- per month. The GCSC will provide office space including a PC with internet access and access to the JLU-library The GCSC does not contribute to retirement or health benefits. |
| Funding | | | | |
| Application material | Application form, plus: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - short CV, including list of publications and teaching experience where applicable - copies of all degree certificates - research proposal of no more than 20 pages - timetable for the completion of the project - two references from university teachers - printed copy of the PhD thesis and further publications (no CD-Roms) - two additional copies of the entire application (with the exception of the PhD thesis) | Application form, plus: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - short CV, including list of publications and teaching experience - copies of all degree certificates - research proposal (1200 words) - bibliography relevant to the candidate's research project - two references from university teachers - two additional copies of the entire application | Application form, plus: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - short CV, including list of publications and teaching experience - research proposal (1200 words) - bibliography relevant to the candidate's research project - two additional copies of the entire application | Application form, plus: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - short CV, including list of publications and teaching experience - abstracts for 2 workshops to be held (max. 100-150 words/each) - research and teaching profile/portfolio (max. 750 words) - two additional copies of the entire application |